President Huntsman reported:

- As recent reports show, a remarkable number of San Francisco High School graduates (approximately forty percent) are coming to City College. We should be aware that we have a major impact on the education of San Francisco residents.
- The survey process used last week to get faculty feedback about ID cards has potential for Academic Senate voting for the future, with a goal of increasing participation. Before the process can be used for Senate voting a plan will be developed for resolving access problems, and work must be done to ensure anonymity between the east and west sides of the campus. A request will be sent to Blomquist to supply additional information and maps for a meeting on November 11 at 2:00, at a place to be determined.
